David & Jonathan

1 Samuel 18:1-4, 20:1-42

1. What is the significance of David and Jonathan's covenant?
    a. David's covenant promise assured Jonathan that his family would not be annihilated when David replaced Saul as king.
    b. The covenant declared that Jonathan would be the next King
    c. Jonathan promised David he would take over his father's throne

2. What is the moral lesson of the story of David and Jonathan?
    a. Brotherhood is never forever
    b. Friendship is Loyalty
    c. The throne of the King is for royalty

3. What is the promise that Jonathan and David make to each other?
    a. Jonathan promised to convince King Saul to keep David as 2nd in command
    b. David promised to always save a place at the table for Jonathan
    c. Jonathan would talk to his father and let David know how the King felt about him; David promised that he would spar Jonathan's family from death when he becomes King

4. What does Jonathan's story teach us?
    a. Strength through Loyalty
    b. Bravery through Faith
    c. Courage through Fire

LIVEWORKSHEETS