

Declarative or Interrogative

Read each sentence carefully. Select declarative if the sentence is a telling sentence and interrogative if the sentence is an asking sentence.

- | | | |
|--|-------------|---------------|
| 1. Henry walks to school everyday. | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 2. Jenny gets paid after she completes her chores. | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 3. Can you help me solve this math sum? | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 4. David's mom is cooking lunch for the team. | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 5. How many crabs did you see? | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 6. Did you attend Gena's party? | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 7. Mercury is the smallest planet on our solar system. | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 8. Who stole the cookies from the jar? | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 9. The rainbow consists of seven colours. | Declarative | Interrogative |
| 10. Why was he behaving so unruly? | Declarative | Interrogative |