

Task 1. Complete the sentences with the words from the box blurb	fiction	title	poems	contains	stole	historical in favour of

1. This book _____ twenty chapters.
2. Josh writes amazing _____ about life.
3. Amelia prefers _____ to history books.
4. The _____ of my article is 'Live and Learn'.
5. There is a short _____ on the back of this book.
6. I am _____ e-books because they are easier to use.
7. Michael _____ my idea about writing a love poem
8. It's a _____ novel based on the events in the 1800s.

Task 2. Put the letter D if the relative clause is defining or the letter N if it is non-defining

1. The programme that I watched on TV last night was very interesting. _____
2. Walter's grandmother, who lives in Scotland, got married yesterday.

3. Jessica and John, who have moved in next door, are both dentists.

4. The tree which we planted last month is growing nicely. _____
5. Bill Gates, who is the richest man on earth, lives in Washington.

6. The man that I told you about has asked Minnie out on a date.

7. The hotel, where you can book a room, has two swimming pools and a bar. _____
8. The shop where you can buy a map is just down the road from here.

Task 3. Fill in with the correct relative pronoun

1. March, _____ I was born, is my favourite month.
2. Their bookshop, _____ I liked to stay, has closed.

3. These kids, _____ parents have arrived, are free to go.
4. His article, _____ can be found on this website, is about sport.
5. Mr Smith, _____ is my Literature teacher, lives here.
6. Linda, _____ coat is red, is already in the classroom.
7. Veronica, _____ big brother is at work, likes drawing.
8. The place _____ I saw Ed is this café.
9. The year _____ we met is 2024.
10. That old desk, _____ is on the left, is mine.
11. The guys _____ you met there are my friends.
12. Tommy, _____ loves his pet cat, is good at Maths.