

Adjectives for Food

Instructions: Read the paragraph and choose the correct adjective from the options in brackets. Use context clues to help you.

Last weekend, I went to a new restaurant with my family. First, we ordered a cake for dessert. It was (awful / delicious / sour), and everyone wanted another piece. The chocolate was very (awful / unhealthy / sweet), but not too strong. Then, I tried a vegetable soup. It was very (healthy / terrible / sweet) and also (awful / tasty / sour). I usually don't like vegetables, but this soup was (fantastic / terrible / sour). My brother ordered fast food. It looked (amazing / healthy / sour), but we know it is very (healthy / unhealthy / wonderful) to eat every day. He said the fries were (awful / tasty / terrible) and the sauce was a bit (fantastic / wonderful / sour). At the end, we all agreed the restaurant was (awful / wonderful / unhealthy), and we will go back again soon.
