Popular ..... and a bucket of paint

Supercomputer on a jolly crusade

Massaging your forearms, ... your gaze

Stealing your thunder, ...your brain

Trying not to wake up ..... dogs, just because

You're a ..... little hall of famer

Tonight is .....on one side, sort of like

A set of cherry red and white loaded dice

You've got .....on your mind, and so have I

I can see it from here

Ten years ..... it's been a decade

Coming ..... in a suitable space

Mystery boxes from ..... you cannot escape

Sticking your .....out in a spiritual way

Alternate .....

Sneak up on the sly, the way I know you like

Please, don't fall in love with .....on opening night

Flashback to infinity, ... one more time
