Glamping!

I love the outdoors, but I don't like camping. A friend is talking about glamping today – let's find out more!

Does she have to take a tent to sleep in?

No, glamping is very comfortable. There isn't any sleeping on the floor and there's usually a bed and hot water!

Instead of a tent, you can stay in a cabin, a pod, or a yurt.

Does she have to use a blanket?

Sometimes. It's all about feeling cosy, warm and comfortable. It can depend on the weather and where your glamping site is.

Does she have to use a torch?

Sometimes. But sometimes there's a bed, hot water AND electricity!

Does she have to bring a stove?

No, there's usually a basic kitchen with a stove to use.

What's her favourite thing about glamping?

Well, it's like camping, but it's more comfortable, warmer and more relaxing than camping.

- 1 Glamping means there's a bed.
- 2 Camping is more comfortable than glamping.
- 3 You have to bring a stove.
- 4 There's usually hot water.
