

PRESENT SIMPLE AND PRESENT CONTINUOUS

PRESENT SIMPLE

S+ V (S) +

I play basketball on Saturdays.

She plays basketball on Saturdays.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

S+ AM/ IS/ ARE + V – ING +

I am playing basketball now.

She is playing basketball now.

Choose the correct answer

- I always do / am doing my homework after school.
- My brother plays / is playing basketball on Mondays.
- They watch / are watching TV now.
- Where is mum? She reads/ is reading a book in the living room.
- I always have/ am having a shower in the mornings.
- I usually eat/ am eating fruit and yoghurt for dessert, but today I am eating/ eat cake!
- My brother is cutting / cuts the grass on Saturdays, but he is cleaning up / cleans up the house today.
- I usually am eating / eat cereals for breakfast, but today I eat / am eating biscuits with and orange juice.
- Dad always cooks / is cooking sandwiches for dinner, but today he cooks / is cooking pasta.

THAT AND WHO

Complete the sentences with who or that.

- She is the woman _____ works at the library.
- This is the dress _____ my mom wears for parties.
- This is the plant _____ eats small insects.
- Mary is the girl _____ has a tree house in her garden.
- This is the picture _____ I have in my room.
- This is the book _____ I am reading.
- Look! This is the shop _____ sells the stickers you like.
- He is the man _____ fixes my bicycle.

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

Choose the correct possessive adjective.

- I have a headache. _____ head hurts.
- This is the dog's bone. It is _____ bone.
- These are Mary's books. They are _____ books.
- We brush _____ teeth after every meal.
- This is the children's school. It's _____ school.
- Jack is Peter's brother. Jack is _____ brother.
- Here you are, this is _____ sandwich.
- This is _____ house. I live here.