A Special Day

Last month, I had a very special day. It was my sister's birthday, and my family planned a surprise for her.

In the morning, I got up early and helped my parents prepare breakfast. We made her favorite food and bought a small cake. My sister did not know about the surprise, so she was very happy when she saw everything.

In the afternoon, we went to a park near our house. We played games, took photos, and talked together. The weather was sunny and warm, so we stayed there for a long time.

In the evening, we had dinner at home. My sister said it was the best birthday she ever had. I felt tired, but very happy.
