

Reading Task. Read the text “What Is Home?” and complete tasks.

Home is not just a building. It is a place where we feel safe, loved, and comfortable. For some people, home is a house or an apartment. For others, it can be a city, a village, or even a country. Home is where we spend time with our family and friends, celebrate special occasions, and rest after a busy day.

Different people have different ideas about home. Some may value memories and feelings, while others think about physical spaces. What makes a home special is love, care, and belonging.

Task 1. Read the text quickly and answer:

- What is home according to the text?

- Name two things that make a home special.

- What is another word for home?

– Task 2. Use a website to find one example of a home in another country.

- Where is this home?

- What is special about it?

- What is it built from?

– Task 3. Write 3-4 sentences about your home.

Include:

- Where your home is?
- What makes it special?
- One thing you like to do there?
- If your home could have one impossible / sci-fi feature added tomorrow (teleporting door, zero-gravity bedroom, room that changes gravity depending on your mood, talking wall that roasts you, etc.), what would you choose and why?
