

READING 1

Simple Food Every Day

Tom and his family eat simple food every day. They don't eat fancy food because they can't afford it. In the kitchen, there is some bread, rice, and pasta. There is a carton of milk, a bottle of water, and a jar of sugar. There isn't much sugar, and there isn't any soda. Tom eats a banana and an apple every day. He eats some vegetables like carrots, tomatoes, onions, and green beans. He doesn't eat too many eggs, and he doesn't eat too much salt. For lunch, Tom eats chicken or fish with rice. His food is tasty, healthy, and delicious. He eats with a fork and a spoon and drinks water from a glass.

1. Read the text and choose True (T) or False (F).

1. Tom and his family eat fancy food every day.
☐ T ☐ F
2. There is some bread and some rice in the kitchen.
☐ T ☐ F
3. There is a lot of sugar in the kitchen.
☐ T ☐ F
4. Tom eats a banana and an apple every day.
☐ T ☐ F
5. Tom eats too many eggs.
☐ T ☐ F
6. Tom drinks water from a glass.
☐ T ☐ F

2. Complete the sentences

(a / an / some / any / much / many)

1. There is _____ bread in the kitchen.
2. There isn't _____ soda.
3. Tom eats _____ banana every day.
4. There isn't _____ sugar.
5. Tom eats _____ vegetables.

3. Choose the correct answer

1. Rice is:
a) countable
b) uncountable
2. Banana is:
a) countable
b) uncountable
3. "How _____ rice do you want?"
a) many
b) much
4. "How _____ carrots do you want?"
a) much
b) many

