

Task 1. Choose the correct variant

1. There are no / some biscuits in that box. Toby ate them all.
2. Ed has eaten much / all my oranges!
3. How much / many sugar do we need?
4. There are a few / a little vegetables left in the fridge.
5. There are so much / many carrots in the basket!
6. We only need a few / a little eggs to make this pie.
7. Bella hasn't baked any / some potatoes yet.
8. There is only both of / a little meat left - that's not enough.
9. All / Much people enjoy going to the restaurants.
10. I have two sweets, and lots of / both of them are chocolate.

Task 2. Complete the sentences with the words from the box

apron	boil	home-made	necessary	vegetarian	whisk
-------	------	-----------	-----------	------------	-------

1. I need a _____ to mix the eggs.
2. Use an _____ so you won't get dirty.
3. Watch out! The soup is going to _____!
4. Jake is a _____ - he doesn't eat fish or meat.
5. It is _____ to have good manners at the table.
6. We prefer _____ cakes to the ones from the bakery.

Task 3. Match

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Will you help Jane? | a) Yes, they are. They are coming on Monday. |
| 2. Are they going to clean up the mess? | b) No, he isn't. He is a shy person. |
| 3. Is Ann meeting Peter this evening? | c) Yes, I will. Don't worry - she won't be alone. |
| 4. Will you come to the party? | d) No, they aren't. They are too lazy. |
| 5. Is George going to say something? | e) Yes, she is. She is meeting him in the park. |
| 6. Are your cousins visiting you this week? | f) No, we won't. Sorry. |