

Book vs. Movie ComparisonReading/Viewing Reminder

- Book (1993, Lois Lowry): Jonas is 12 years old when chosen as Receiver. The world is very controlled, emotionless, and colorless. The story is subtle, ending ambiguously with Jonas sledding toward music and lights.
- Movie (2014 adaptation): Jonas is aged up to a teenager. The movie adds action scenes, romance with Fiona, and a clearer, more hopeful ending. Visuals highlight color changes, and the community is depicted with futuristic technology.

Comparison Chart - Fill in the chart below by noting the differences and similarities between the novel and the movie.

Category	Book	Movie	Effect/Why it Matters
Jonas's Age
Jonas & Fiona
The Giver & Jonas's Relationship
The Ending
The Community's Control			