Dear Sir/Madam,

I saw your scholarship advertisement on your official website, and I am very interested in applying for this scholarship opportunity.

I am currently a hardworking student with strong academic performance. I have acquired many important skills through my studies and school activities. As you can see from my CV, I am fluent in Arabic and English, and I am also learning French. I am a responsible, motivated, and ambitious person who always tries to achieve the best results. I enjoy learning new things and meeting new people from different backgrounds.

I believe that my qualifications and personal qualities make me suitable for this scholarship. I am available for an interview at your convenience. I hope you will consider my application, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,
Ali Abadi
