

A brief explanation of what a word processor is and what it can do

Choose only the correct statements:

1. All the applications mentioned in the video are word processors.
2. A word processor is a type of hardware used for typing documents.
3. One advantage of using a word processor is that it allows for easy editing of documents.
4. The speaker states that word processors are slower than typewriters.
5. Documents created with a word processor can be saved for future use.
6. The video will cover how to use Apple iWork Pages in future lessons.
7. Word processors automatically check for spelling errors in documents.