

Thank you for being so foolish/helpful during my first week at work.

She is hopeful/furious that she will pass the exam.

The joke was tasteless/lucky and offended everyone.

He lost his phone because he was careless/peaceful.

It would be foolish/reliable to ignore this advice.

The water looks clean and drinkable/selfish.

You can trust him — he is reliable/cowardly.

I was lucky/painful to find my keys so quickly.

We have a weekly/national meeting every Friday.

She began to be suspicious of/be helpful his strange behaviour.

This is a national/affordable holiday celebrated across the country.

The apartment is small but affordable/furious.

The countryside is peaceful/careless and quiet.

It was cowardly/helpful of him to run away.

She was furious/hopeful when she heard the news.

Don't be selfish/painless — share with others.

The injury was painful/lucky for several days.

The operation was quick and painless/tasteless.
