PREPOSITIONS DE

B1-B3. Insert the right prepositions.

CARD 11

1. I strongly disagree ... your opinion on that matter.
2. My parents disapprove ... my decision to become an artist.
3. He is an expert ... identifying rare species of birds.

CARD 12

1. I always dream ... flying.
2. The children dream ... becoming astronauts one day.
3. She was delighted ... the results of her final exam.

CARD 13

1. The student was dissatisfied ... his final grade.
2. She is still disappointed ... her performance in the competition.
3. We must depend ... our guide to lead us safely through the jungle.

©kate.n.eng, 2025

CARD 14

1. He devoted all his free time ... learning the piano.
2. Many historians dedicate their lives ... understanding a single period of history.
3. Please excuse me ... being late, the traffic was terrible.

CARD 15

1. She made an excuse ... not finishing her homework.
2. We had to exchange our currency ... the local money upon arrival at the airport.
3. Please explain the rules ... the new players.

CARD 16

1. ... the end, all our careful planning was useless.
2. The team will go ... an expedition to the remote Arctic island.
3. The train is scheduled to depart ... platform 4 in five minutes.

CARD 17

1. He described the event ... detail during the police interview.
2. To improve his health, he decided to go ... a diet.
3. The soldier was ... duty throughout the night.

CARD 18

1. There is a high demand ... sustainable products among younger consumers.
2. The rare artifact is currently ... high demand from collectors.
3. The political situation in the country is equal ... a crisis.

CARD 19

1. We were stuck ... the dark for hours during the power cut.
2. I have great difficulty ... understanding advanced mathematics.
3. The museum will be closed next week due ... essential renovations.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B19-B22. Word building

1. The ..... (DECIDE) made by world leaders at climate summits are crucial for the future of our planet.
2. Napoleon Bonaparte was a ..... (DECIDE) military commander, known for his ability to make quick and effective choices in battle.
3. Marie Curie's lifelong ..... (DEVOTE) to scientific research led to the discovery of radium and polonium.
4. A major ..... (DIVIDE) in early human history occurred when some populations migrated out of Africa.
5. The discovery of the ancient city of Troy by Heinrich Schliemann ..... (SATISFACTION) a long- standing curiosity about whether the city from Homer's epic was real.
6. Light pollution from cities ..... (DANGER) nocturnal animals by disrupting their natural hunting and migration patterns.
7. The Sumatran tiger is a critically ..... (DANGER) species, with only a few hundred individuals remaining in the wild.
8. The first airplane flight by the Wright Brothers was the result of years of ..... (EXPERIMENT) work with gliders.
9. The Mariana Trench, the deepest point in the ocean, is in perpetual ..... (DARK).
10. One popular ..... (EXPLAIN) for the construction of Stonehenge is that it functioned as an ancient astronomical calendar.
11. The famous physicist Albert Einstein had a complicated personal life, including a broken ..... (ENGAGE) before his first marriage.
12. Steve Jobs was ..... (ENTHUSIASM) about minimalist design, a philosophy that defined Apple's products.
13. There was great ..... (EXCITE) among astronomers when they observed gravitational waves for the first time.
14. The universe appears to be an ..... (END) expanse of galaxies, stars, and mysteries.
15. Climbing Mount Everest is an extremely ..... (DANGER) endeavor due to the extreme altitude and unpredictable weather.
16. An ..... (DECIDE) leader during a crisis can be more damaging than one who makes a firm, even if imperfect, choice.

LIVEWORKSHEETS