NATURAL DISASTERS

GIVE ADVICE: Use should / shouldn't Instructions 1: Finish the sentences with the phrases given.

- you should prepare an emergency kit in advance.
- people should stay away from damaged buildings.
- you shouldn't ignore disaster warnings.
- residents shouldn't panic during emergencies.
- people should move to higher ground immediately.

Your situation | Giving advice

1. There is a tsunami warning in your area.

→ _____

2. After an earthquake, some buildings look unsafe.

→ _____

3. The weather forecast predicts a severe storm.

→ _____

4. Many people feel scared during disasters.

→ _____

5. The authorities announce possible flooding.

→ _____

Instructions 2: Complete the sentences with should or shouldn't.

a. During a flood, people _____ drive through deep water.

b. Before a hurricane arrives, families _____ prepare food and water.

c. During a heatwave, you _____ stay in the sun for too long.

d. When there is a landslide risk, residents _____ avoid steep areas.

e. In an emergency, people _____ remain calm and think carefully.

Name_____NO_____Class_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS