

Communicating with others – what do think?

- You have to tell a close friend some bad news. Is it better to tell them in an email or <sup>1</sup>f_____ to f _____?
- In a restaurant, you're very unhappy with the service. Do you <sup>2</sup>c_____ to the manager or just say nothing?
- A close friend asks you what you think of their new hairstyle. Unfortunately, you don't like it very much. Do you give your <sup>3</sup>o_____ or say nothing?
- You have to <sup>4</sup>g_____ a two-minute presentation to the class tomorrow about your hobby. Are you happy to speak in <sup>5</sup>p_____?
- You're with a group of friends and one of them <sup>6</sup>t_____ a joke that isn't funny and isn't very polite. Do you smile and say nothing or express your real <sup>7</sup>f_____ about it?
- A friend tries to <sup>8</sup>p_____ you to do their English homework for them. It's about an hour's work and you're very busy at the moment. Do you say 'yes' or 'no'?
- You're in the cafeteria at lunch time when you see a new colleague sitting on his own. Do you try to <sup>9</sup>i_____ with him or ignore him?
- You're on a train and another passenger starts speaking very loudly on his phone. You ask him politely to be quiet, but he ignores you. Do you <sup>10</sup>a_____ with him or say nothing?
