

Fill in the blanks.

refuse decorate worried guests celebrate

Emma is a responsible girl. She wants to organize a party for her sister. It is a surprise party for her birthday. She makes a to do list and writes the date, the time, and the place. She prepares an invitation card and invites her friends. Some friends accept, but some _____.

Emma goes to the shop and buys a big cake, some cookies, fruit, popcorn, and beverages. She also buys balloons, party hats, and a candle. At home, she _____ the room and hangs the banner on the wall. She blows up the balloons and wraps the gifts. Her brother helps her to prepare everything. Emma feels a little _____ ... but she does not hesitate.

In the evening, the _____ come and bring small presents. They join the party. When her sister comes home, everyone says "Surprise!" They _____ together. After the party, they clean the house and finally rest.

Fill in the blanks.

1. Emma wants to _____ a party for her sister.
2. She writes the date, the time, and the _____.
3. She buys a big _____ for the birthday.
4. She feels a little _____ before the party.
5. After the party, they clean the house and finally _____.

rest
cake organize worried place

Write the party items under the correct pictures.

present
candles

birthday cake
confetti

party hat
balloons

Write "T" for True, write "F" for False.

1. Emma organizes a surprise party for her sister.....
2. All of her friends accept the invitation.
3. Emma buys balloons and party hats for the party.....
4. Emma feels very relaxed and never feels worried.....
5. The guests bring small presents to the party.....
6. After the party, they leave the house dirty and go to sleep.....