Saturday 17 May

Dear Class 3,

Yesterday, my sister looked after my mother for the day, so Arturo and I went for a day out in London. We had a very enjoyable time.

First, we went to see Buckingham Palace, where Queen Elizabeth lives. It's a huge house. Arturo and I counted 68 windows! Why do you imagine the Queen and her husband need that many rooms?

After leaving the palace, we strolled in the sun beside the River Thames. It's a very wide river and it's extremely busy with ships, speedboats, water taxis and water buses. There are even river police!

Then we went to Westminster and saw the Houses of Parliament. This is where the government makes the laws in the UK. The Houses of Parliament are next to the Thames.

Finally, we went across Westminster Bridge for a ride on the London Eye. This was Arturo's favourite part of the day! The London Eye is a massive wheel. You've probably seen it on TV because they set off fireworks from the London Eye for important celebrations. You can see some excellent views of London from the top.

I hope you are working hard and learning lots of things. I miss you all.

From,
Mrs Sabella
