

Read the statements below, are they true or false? Write T for True and F for false (in capital letters)

_____ 1. Establishing clear behavior expectations is not necessary for effective behavior management in the classroom.

_____ 2. The first meeting with a class does not significantly influence the dynamics of the classroom throughout the year.

_____ 3. Teachers should always maintain the same approach regardless of classroom conditions.

_____ 4. Effective teaching is solely based on possessing natural teaching abilities.

_____ 5. Teachers should remain calm and polite, even in stressful situations, to model good behavior.

_____ 6. Using varied tones in speech can negatively affect student motivation and engagement.

_____ 7. An aggressive teaching style is considered ideal for behavioral management.

_____ 8. A recommended ratio of 5:1 for rewards to sanctions is to maintain an effective balance in behavior management.

_____ 9. It is unnecessary for teachers to plan detailed lessons initially as they can remain flexible from the start.

_____ 10. Teachers have no influence over students' behaviour in the classroom.

_____ 11. Differentiated tasks are essential for students who struggle with communication and comprehension.

_____ 12. Desks in rows are the best layout for group work and collaboration among students.

_____ 13. Young children's behaviour can be effectively managed by setting good habits and routines during early childhood.

_____ 14. Using a countdown to encourage silence in a talkative class is an ineffective behavior management strategy.

_____ 15. Recognizing positive actions in students is emphasized as an important part of behaviour management in chapter 16.

_____ 16. Noise management and pacing of lessons can contribute to a conducive learning environment.