B9. Do you dream of a career in the travel industry? Why not come and work for us such as a travel
B10. planner? A travel planner is someone who works with lots of potential travellers and removes all
B11. the stress from their trips. So, what does the job involve? Firstly, you meet each potential traveller
B12. and ask for their preferences. Based on their answers, you then have to suggest certain countries
B13. that they could visit. An ability to remain patient which is essential for the role, as some travellers
B14. often lose their minds. Furthermore, one other traveller in a group might want to go to New
B15. York for a city break, while another traveller might rather relax at the beach. What do you
B16. do? Discuss the merits of their choices and then let them to decide. Once a decision on the
B17. destination has been made, you then arrange both accommodation, flights, transfers and all
B18. necessary travel insurance. If this sounds like the job to you, we'd love to hear from you!
