INVERTED CONDITIONAL

Match the sentence halves so that they make sense.

Should it rain tomorrow,

Had she listened to my advice,

Were you a superhero,

Had we had taken a map,

Should you want to save some money,

Were it to snow tonight,

what power would you like to have?

we wouldn't have got lost in the woods.

we'd have an epic snowball fight!

we'll have a cozy film night with some popcorn!

she wouldn't have been stressing out during her driving test.

you'll have to control your weekend expenses.
