If I had....

Choose the correct option.

1. What is the main idea of the text?

A) The author imagines how their life would change if they had invented the smartphone.
B) Smartphones are expensive and difficult to make.
C) The author regrets not inventing the smartphone.
D) Technology conferences are exciting.

2. Which sentence supports the idea that the author would be richer if they had invented the smartphone?

A) “I’d be traveling constantly, visiting tech conferences...”
B) “I might even live in Silicon Valley by now...”
C) “I could be making deals, investing in startups, and maybe even funding charities I care about.”
D) “I would have to deal with pressure, expectations, and constant attention.”

3. What can we infer about the author’s current life?

A) It is very busy and full of pressure.
B) It is chaotic and stressful all the time.
C) It is calm and simple, with fewer responsibilities.”
D) It is similar to the life of a tech entrepreneur.

4. What does the word “hectic” most likely mean in the text?

A) Very busy and full of activity
B) Relaxing and peaceful
C) Exciting and fun
D) Confusing and unclear

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. According to the text, what is a possible negative consequence of inventing the smartphone?

A) The author would not travel as much.
B) The author might have less free time and face pressure.
C) The author would live in a small apartment.
D) The author would be bored at work.

6. Why does the author mention living in Silicon Valley?

A) To show that inventors often live there with other tech professionals
B) To explain that they like warm weather
C) To suggest it is cheaper than their current apartment
D) To show that they want to start a tech company there

7. Which sentence best shows that the author finds imagining this life enjoyable?

A) "Still, thinking about it is fun."
B) "I would have to deal with pressure, expectations, and constant attention."
C) "My daily routine would probably be hectic, meetings, interviews, and endless emails..."
D) "I might even live in Silicon Valley by now, surrounded by engineers and innovators..."

8. The phrase "a mix of fame, wealth, and responsibility" suggests that the author thinks this life would be:

A) Exciting but challenging
B) Simple and relaxing
C) Stress-free and calm
D) Boring and repetitive

LIVEWORKSHEETS