

Adding emphasis

Instructions: Match each structure to its main purpose.

Structure	Function
1. Fronting	A. Highlight the subject or object
2. Inversion after negative adverbials	B. Add dramatic or formal emphasis
3. It-cleft sentence	C. Focus attention on new or important info
4. What-cleft sentence	D. Emphasise the result or outcome

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence using the structure in brackets.

1. I liked the proposal, but I disliked the timing. (fronting)

2. I have never experienced such poor communication. (inversion)

3. The HR manager approved the budget. (it-cleft)

4. I really need clearer instructions. (what-cleft)

5. We realised the problem only after the meeting. (only + inversion)
