Read the text below about a carnival in Colombia.

The Barranquilla Carnival

CARNAVAL DE BARRANQUILLA

The Barranquilla Carnival is a very famous traditional celebration in Colombia. It takes place every year in February or March. Many people from Colombia and other countries visit Barranquilla to enjoy the party. The carnival is full of music, dancing, colorful costumes, and cultural shows. It is one of the biggest festivals in Latin America.

People wear special clothes and masks. They dance cumbia and other traditional rhythms. The most important parade is "La Batalla de las Flores". It is a very long parade with music and beautiful floats. The carnival does not last only one day. It usually lasts four days.

During the carnival, schools and offices are usually closed. People do not work, and they enjoy the party with family and friends. However, not everyone in Colombia celebrates it. Some people from other regions do not go to Barranquilla. They watch it on TV or listen to it on the radio. The carnival is fun, but it is also a time to remember culture and history.
