Read the following passage and choose the correct answer to each of the questions.

All over the world, all different cultures created interesting processed meat products, and one of the most popular is undoubtedly sausage.

To begin with, sausage-making may be considered disgusting as it deals with using various animal parts. Since meat is ground up, certain cuts and parts of an animal that wouldn't be served in their original forms can be used. Literally, this means animal parts such as noses, ears, and other less appetizing areas of an animal's body. Very often, they ground up meat and flesh is mixed with a certain percentage of fat, along with spices and other fillers. After being mixed well, this meat mixture is then stuffed into the cleaned intestines of the animal, which are then sealed at both ends. The result is sausages.

The meats used in sausages come from a variety of animals, though beef and pork are by far the favorites. In some cultures, sausage made from the meat of horses is considered a delicacy. When sausages are cooked, the cooking process sometimes adds to the flavor. While boiling is probably the simplest method, smoking sausages will add a lot of smoky flavors.

Next time you bite into a sausage, it is probably best not to think too much about how it became the tasty thing you are eating. After all, you don't want to ruin a good snack.

Question 29 (Question ID: 9-843563)

Four phrases/sentences have been removed from the text below. Choose the correct answer to complete the text. Write only the letter A-D in each blank.

A. which is seventy parts of one hundred of water itself
B. which is taken from one place
C. Nevertheless, nature does not put water where and when we need it.
D. However, water also gives life to all living things in the world.

Water kills thousands of people and destroys many acres of crops every year. Q29.1..... We must have water to grow our food, feed animals in our homes, and generate electricity. Even the human body, Q29.2....., cannot exist for long without water.

Even since the earth began, large quantities of water have been used by living things. Yet for every drop of water Q29.3....., another drop is put back from somewhere else. Nature has a very clever way of carrying water from cloud to land and sea and back to cloud. No water has been lost. Q29.4..... While some men are drowning, others in another part of the world are dying of thirst. So people all over the world are trying to bring water to places where it is scarce, to control its flow in times of floods, and to make greater use of it.
