My Weekend Plans

This weekend is going to be very special for me. I am going to visit my grandparents who live in the countryside. The air is always fresh there, and the view from their house is beautiful. I am going to bring them some flowers from the city market, because I know they are going to love them.

On Saturday morning, my grandparents and I are going to prepare a big breakfast together. We are going to make pancakes, eggs, and fresh juice. After breakfast, my grandfather is going to take me fishing at the lake nearby. I am sure we are going to catch some fish, and then we are going to cook them for lunch.

In the afternoon, my grandmother is going to show me how to bake her famous apple pie. I am going to help her peel the apples and mix the ingredients. We are going to have so much fun baking and talking in the kitchen. The house is going to smell delicious while the pie is in the oven.

On Sunday, we are going to take a long walk through the fields and forests. I am going to take lots of photos to remember this weekend. In the evening, I am going to say goodbye and promise to visit again soon. This weekend is going to be full of memories that I am going to cherish forever.
