

Using Conditionals

Activity 1: Instructions: Complete the sentences using appropriate conditional forms.

1. If the warning signs _____ (take) more seriously at the time, the company _____ (avoid) the reputational damage it now faces.
2. We _____ (not face) such resistance today if management _____ (communicate) more transparently in the past.
3. Had sufficient resources _____ (allocate) to the project, it _____ (stand) a far greater chance of success.

Activity 2:

Instructions: Rewrite the sentences to express criticism, regret, or justification.

1. They failed to consult employees.

2. The company underestimated the impact of the decision.

3. We didn't respond quickly enough to market changes.
