

You will hear part of a radio talk for young people about animals communicating with each other. For questions 11-20, complete the notes below which summarise what the speaker says.

Bees do a (11) _____ to communicate where to find food.

Although parrots seem to speak, they are only (12) _____ the human sounds.

Primates can communicate a few (13) _____ using simple sounds.

Monkeys have not been observed to use any kind of (14) _____.

Although dolphins can make vowel sounds, they cannot accurately imitate our (15) _____.

Amazingly, dolphins demonstrate (16) _____ of when phrases should be used.

The sounds made by whales contain (17) _____ than human speech.

The songs of the bottle-nosed whale have many of the (18) _____ of human speech.

The unique grammatical nature of human language arose due to life in (19) _____.

Indeed, a young child needs enough (20) _____ with other people to develop speech.