

Complete the table

Sentence	Modal verbs	Form	Use / Meaning
You must drink water every day.	must	must + drink must + base form	- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
I have to go to school tomorrow.			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
You mustn't run in the class			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
I need to finish my homework tonight			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
They don't have to pay for lunch today			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
You don't need to hurry; there's plenty of time			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity
You needn't bring any food to the party			- To express obligation / To express Prohibited - To express necessity / To express lack of necessity