

Complete the table

| Sentence                                        | Modal verbs | Form                             | Use / Meaning                                                                                                                                                           |
|-------------------------------------------------|-------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| You must drink water every day.                 | must        | must + drinkmust + base form | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To express obligation</li> <li>To express necessity</li> </ul> /           To express ProhibitedTo express lack of necessity |
| I have to go to school tomorrow.                |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| You mustn't run in the class                    |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| I need to finish my homework tonight            |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| They don't have to pay for lunch today          |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| You don't need to hurry; there's plenty of time |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| You needn't bring any food to the party         |             |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                         |