

UNIT 4 – VOCABULARY REVISION

Task 1 Fill in each gap with one missing word.

In today's world, many people want to have a well-paid that offers stability and good career prospects. Some choose to become a white-..... worker, while others prefer more active professions, such as a flight, which involves travelling and meeting new people. No matter the job, employees are expected to be punctual and be on time, as this shows professionalism and responsibility.

Modern workplaces often require strong, because working together helps employees achieve better results. In many jobs, people must also work under, especially when deadlines are tight or unexpected problems appear. Most employees work, but some companies allow their staff to work, which makes it easier to balance work and personal life.

Salary is another important factor. Regular help people feel secure, and an additional can be a great motivation to work harder and improve performance. Overall, choosing the right job depends on skills, personality, and expectations, but good working conditions are essential for long-term satisfaction.

Task 2 Fill in the text with words formed from those given in brackets.

Applying for a job can be a stressful but important step in a person's career. A well-written (APPLY) for a job increases the chances of being invited for an interview and becoming a successful (EMPLOY) Some people are very (INDUSTRY) and highly motivated, but when work becomes the most important part of life, they may turn into a workoholic, which can be harmful in the long run.

In recent years, new professions have appeared, such as a social media (INFLUENCE), who earns money by creating online content. For many young people, this job seems exciting and (REWARD), although it requires creativity, consistency, and strong self-discipline. In traditional companies, experienced workers may be promoted to a (LEAD) role, where they are responsible for managing teams and making key decisions.

Work plays an important role at every stage of life. Even after retirement, a (PENSION) can stay active by volunteering or sharing professional experience with younger generations. In conclusion, a balanced approach to work is essential to achieve success,
..... (SATISFY), and a healthy lifestyle.

Task 3 – Translate the parts of sentences into English. Use up to 5 words.

1. My sister wants to apply for a job because she is currently (bezrobotna).
2. Tom works very long hours and often(pracuje pod presją).
3. Anna was promoted last month and now
(zarządza zespołem).
4. This job is well paid but(wymaga wysokich kwalifikacji).
5. He decided to change jobs because he was tired of(pracą na zmiany).
6. Our company offers flexible working hours and(pracę zdalną).
7. She has a lot of experience and(świetnie radzi sobie z klientami).
8. After finishing university, he started(szukać pracy).
9. The boss asked me to(przejąć obowiązki) while she was on holiday.
10. Many people prefer a job that is(stabilny i dobrze płatny).