

SAM'S BIRTHDAY

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

My friend Sam's birthday was last Saturday. He was twelve. We had a party for him, but we didn't tell him we were going to have the party. On Saturday morning, Sam's parents took him to breakfast at a restaurant. His cousin William has a key to his house, so we all went to the house to prepare everything.

First, everyone put the presents that they brought for Sam on the table in the dining room. Then, we moved all the sofas and chairs in the living room so we would have enough space to dance. We wrote "Happy Birthday Sam!" on a big piece of paper and we colored it gold. We put the paper on the wall. One of Sam's friends brought some games for everyone to play and we put them in the living room, too.

Next, we needed to make a cake for Sam. The kitchen was very hot when the cooker was on, so we opened the window. The cake smelled very good and we wanted Sam to come home so we could eat it. We also made pizza for lunch and some of Sam's friends brought milk and juice to drink.

Soon we hear a car outside the house. We turned off the lights and hid behind the sofas and chairs. But when Sam came in, he laughed. "I know you're here," he said. We all jumped up. "Why aren't you surprised?" we asked. "Because the window is open and I could smell the cake from outside." he told us. "Thanks, everyone. Let's eat!"
