

Unit 6 - New Frontiers - Lesson 3 - Conditionals

Third conditional

Usage: is used to talk about impossible situations in the past (they have already happened).

Example: If we had gotten to the airport on time, we would have caught our flight.

Rule: if clause(condition) (past perfect) + main clause (result) would, could, might+ have+ past participle

★ Match the sentence's halves.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 If I could visit another planet, <input type="checkbox"/> | a) if I were an engineer. |
| 2 I would have talked to my grandad <input type="checkbox"/> | b) I would have named it after my dad. |
| 3 I would design a faster rocket <input type="checkbox"/> | c) we might have found it sooner. |
| 4 If we had had the technology, <input type="checkbox"/> | d) I would choose Jupiter. |
| 5 If I had the right qualifications, <input type="checkbox"/> | e) if he had been there. |
| 6 If I had discovered a planet, <input type="checkbox"/> | f) I would apply to be an astronaut. |

★★ Complete the sentences with (would/could/might have +past participle).

1. If I had been born 40 years earlier,
2. If I had had more time,
3. If we hadn't learned Chinese,
4. If we had not turned right at the junction,

★★★ Write your own sentences using the third conditional rule.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

Done by
Ms. Fatema AbdulJalil

Vice Principal
Ms. Sareea AlThawadi

School Principal