

Close-Up B1+ - Comparative, superlative and equatives

Comparative, superlative and equative - adjectives

A Complete the sentences with the correct form of the adjectives.

1. She's _____ as her husband. They're both 27. (young)
2. This is _____ case in the shop. (strong)
3. This TV show is much _____ the one we saw yesterday. (funny)
4. You're _____ person in the classroom. (friendly)
5. The traffic is _____ it was last year. (noisy)
6. It doesn't matter which show we watch. The Price is Right is _____ as Master Chef for me. (boring)
7. My house is _____ Helen's. (near)
8. She's _____ student in the group. (intelligent)
9. Ms. Anderson is a _____ teacher than Mr. Robert. (good)
10. These people are _____ in the country. (poor)

Comparative, superlative and equative - adverbs

A Complete the sentences with the correct form of the adverbs.

1. I speak English _____ now than two years ago. (fluently)
2. She greeted me _____ as she greeted anyone else. (politely)
3. She smiled _____ ever before. (happily)
4. That couple dances _____ of all. (gracefully)
5. Could you write your name _____, please ? (clearly)
6. Planes can fly _____ than birds. (highly)
7. He drives _____ before because he has had an accident recently. (carefully)
8. Jim can run _____ as John. (fast)
9. Our team played _____ of all. (badly)
10. If he spoke _____ I'd definitely understand him. (slowly)

Close-Up B1+ - Comparative, superlative and equatives

Comparative, superlative and equative - mixed

- A Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words given. Sometimes it will be necessary to modify the word first.
1. Tonya used to cry _____ her sister when she was a baby. (loud)
 2. I think tall girls walk _____ as short ones. (elegant)
 3. Climbing a mountain doesn't seem _____ as bungee jumping. (exciting)
 4. The more bad jokes John told, the _____ I got. (embarrassed)
 5. A tiger that has just given birth fights _____ to protect her offspring. (fierce)
 6. You should breathe _____ in order to practice yoga effectively. (calm)
 7. A lemon tastes _____ an orange. (sour)
 8. The boys sang _____ as they did when they won the championship last year. (cheerful)
 9. I need to buy some new boots. I guess my old ones weren't _____ as I imagined they would be. (durable)
 10. This is one it is one of _____ mobiles in the market. (robust)

Image by eommina - <https://pixabay.com>