

Sleepless nights, sleepness fights

with the way my 's designed.

It's designed to it on my sleeve again,

just bullshit, I can't believe it any other way.

I wish, I wish I could have seen

what was coming, coming

Looks like itme.

I'm not easy, not easy to live with,

I've always got to have thesay.

I'm not doing anything here.

We're all human, but some are more than others

but I found her by the ocean

I got my dreams, but my dreams have gotten tougher

I to have you near.

Drifting on, drifting on away.

Come andmy breath away,

It even hurts when I want to

You're drifting on, drifting on away.
