

FUNCTIONS USED TO DESCRIBE GOOD AND BAD EXPECTATIONS

1. I have a _____ about this.
2. I'm _____ there's no way...
3. Something _____ wrong.
4. That _____ very good.
5. I don't like _____ of...
6. That could be _____.
7. I'm really _____ to...
8. I can _____ wait to...
9. I can't _____ to do this.

GOOD

BAD

VERBAL COMBINATIONS: AWAY x BACK

1. The city is so crowded for the festival that every inn and hotel are turning people _____.
2. The best part of traveling by train is that you can sit _____ and enjoy the view as you cross the country.
3. Mike tried to fight _____ his exhaustion so he could keep going.
4. I can't wait to lie _____ on the sand and feel the ocean breeze against my face.
5. This crime wave is bad for business. It's driving the tourists _____.
6. I tried to help packing but my wife told me to stand _____ because I was making a mess.
7. As the band started playing, I looked at my brother and saw that he was holding _____ the tears.
8. Did you honestly think you could walk into a bar and drink your troubles _____?
9. My son is only five years old and he's already talking _____.
10. Ms. Bennet gave _____ most of her fortune to charity.

AWAY x BACK

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| <input type="text"/> | to restrain/contain or control |
| <input type="text"/> | to a great distance from a place |
| <input type="text"/> | out of existence or notice, into extinction |
| <input type="text"/> | to reply rudely to someone, in response or as a reaction |
| <input type="text"/> | movement backwards, away from the front and towards the rear |

- | | |
|----------------------|--------------------------------|
| <input type="text"/> | in a resting position, recline |
| <input type="text"/> | out of possession or use |

word
bank

VOLUNTOURISM • NOVICE • OUTREACH
SKEPTICAL • DAY-TO-DAY • ASSIST • PROGRAMS • TO GET ACQUAINTED W/
BEFOREHAND • ENTRY • TO WARM UP