

Plan...

It's time to plan your own writing (pre-writing).

Write an essay of 110–130 words about the argument that it's better to explore the ocean than outer space. Present both sides of the argument and persuade your readers to agree with you.

1. Organise.

A. Task: Your task is to write about the argument that it's better to explore the ocean than outer space. To persuade your readers, research facts to support your argument.
