★★ Complete the sentences with the correct Present Perfect forms of the words in brackets.

1 Have you started (you/start) looking for a job yet?
2 Antonia _____ (never/work) in a factory.
3 I _____ (not decide) which job I want to do yet.
4 _____ (the business/ever/make) a profit?
5 My friends and I _____ (never/have) summer jobs.
6 Cath is only seventeen and she _____ (already/have) five jobs!
7 My aunt _____ (just/open) a café.
8 _____ (the staff/have) a pay rise this year?

★★ Choose the correct time expressions to complete the mini-conversations.

Olga You've [1]just / ever / never tried to find a job before. Why are you looking now?
Bella Alison has [2]already / just / ever told me about her idea for a summer holiday together. I need some money.

Interviewer Have you [3]already / just / ever worked in a restaurant before?
Leon Yes, I have, but in the kitchen doing the washing up. I've [4]already / just / never worked as a waiter before.

Noah Have you asked Mr James about a job [5]already / yet / ever?
Jimmy Yes, I have. He's [6]already / never / ever told me I can start next week.

★★ Choose the correct forms to complete the sentences.

1 Did you finish / Have you finished your careers project yet?
2 Melissa has never worked / never worked in a café before, but she's really enjoying it.
3 What have your friends done / did your friends do last Saturday?
4 I have worked / worked in a sports shop last summer.
5 Has your uncle ever sacked / Did your uncle ever sack one of his employees?
6 This is my first morning at the café and I have already served / already served twenty customers!

LIVEWORKSHEETS