

NEVER ENOUGH by Loren Allred

Drag the lines in the correct order:

Take my hand
Can't let this moment end
I'm trying to hold my breath
Getting louder now
Can you hear it echoing?
You set off a dream in me
Will you share this with me?
Let it stay this way
'Cause darling without you

Join the two halves :

All the shine of a
All the stars we steal
Will never be enough,
Towers of gold
These hands could hold Never be enough, never

are still too little the world but it'll never be enough
thousand spotlights
be enough
from the night sky

For me

Never, never. Never, never. Never, for me. For me
