

Other Vocabulary Words I Need to Know

Word Bank

central idea subheading figurative language simile metaphor personification hyperbole alliteration summary paraphrase imagery props character tag stage directions sensory words stanza

Directions: Use the words from the word bank to fill in the blanks.

1. A comparison of two things using "like" or "as" _____
2. Things used in a play by the actors (Example: King Bartholomew's bowl and spoon.) _____
3. Language that is used in an unexpected way to add meaning to a text and create a special effect or feeling _____
4. words the author uses so that readers can create a picture in their heads _____
5. written instructions telling the actors what to do _____
6. To say the same thing in a different way (your own words)

7. Labels before lines of dialogue to show which character is speaking

8. Words or phrases that appeal to one of the five senses

9. Words that begin with the same sound (Example: Fast Phyllis ran far.) _____
10. A group of lines within a poem _____
11. A comparison between two by saying one thing is another thing

12. An exaggeration, usually used for dramatic effect (making something seem like its more than it really is) or to make people laugh _____
13. A shorter version of a passage which included important information from the beginning, middle, and end of the selection

14. Another way of saying subtitle _____
15. When human qualities or characteristics are given to an animal or object _____
16. Another way of saying main idea _____