

1 Choose the correct adjective.

- 1 Maggie is doing her homework and she's bored / boring.
- 2 I hate it when my mum asks me about school – it's so annoying / annoyed.
- 3 Dad was relaxing / relaxed after playing his guitar.
- 4 It was surprising / surprised that Anne won the game so easily.
- 5 I'm a bit confused / confusing about the ending of the book – what actually happened?
- 6 Johnny stood up in class but forgot what to say – he was embarrassing / embarrassed.
- 7 We went to bed early last night because we were tiring / tired.
- 8 This new video game is disappointing / disappointed.
- 9 This film is really bored / boring – I think I'll read a book instead.
- 10 Were you surprised / surprising to hear that Joe won first prize in the competition?

2 Complete the sentences with the correct adjectives from the box.

annoyed / annoying      bored / boring
confused / confusing embarrassed / embarrassing

- 1 I really liked the first Fast Cars film, but I thought the second film, Even Faster Cars, was so _____ . I actually fell asleep at one point.
- 2 I tried to explain to my dad how to use Snapchat, but he just looked really _____. I don't think he'll ever understand technology.
- 3 My sister is _____ with me at the moment because I borrowed her top without asking and got tomato ketchup on it.
- 4 The other day I called my teacher 'Mum' by mistake and everyone laughed at me. I was so _____ !