Why not take a holiday on a river? You can hire a comfortable boat and spend a week or two on the water. You'll see beautiful trees and fields and you can stop at some of the lovely villages you pass – or spend time visiting interesting towns. If you enjoy taking pictures of nature or learning about history, this is the ideal holiday for you!

Ben

Have you ever thought about taking a trip to the Caribbean? This is the perfect place for anyone who loves sunshine and sand! With so many fantastic islands to choose from, there's something for everyone. Visit the amazing forests, buy local food and souvenirs in the markets or take a boat trip to look for dolphins and whales. The choice is yours! I'm sure that you won't get bored!

Chris

Are you looking for something different for your next holiday? Then what could be better than a long weekend in London? You can stay in a fashionable hotel in the centre and visit the incredible museums and art galleries. Or if you prefer shopping, there are streets full of wonderful shops with exciting things to buy. And when you're feeling hungry, there are many cafés and restaurants that serve food from all around the world.
