Name: Score:

7 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 14

How are homes near water prepared for flooding in Louisiana?

- Gather supplies and evacuate.
- Many houses are built on stilts high off the ground.
- The Florida Parishes
- It has many prairies and marshes.

Term 2 of 14

What is timber used for?

- Things that come from nature and can be used by humans, such as water, trees, oil, and seafood.
- Listening to zydeco music and eating spicy foods due to French and Acadian culture.
- Timber, or wood, is used to build things like furniture and homes.
- Texas to the West, Arkansas to the North, and Mississippi to the East

Term 3 of 14

What are natural resources?

- Texas to the West, Arkansas to the North, and Mississippi to the East
- Timber, or wood, is used to build things like furniture and homes.
- Things that come from nature and can be used by humans, such as water, trees, oil, and seafood.
- Listening to zydeco music and eating spicy foods due to French and Acadian culture.

Term 4 of 14

What is the Acadiana region known for?

- Timber, or wood, is used to build things like furniture and homes.
- Listening to zydeco music and eating spicy foods due to French and Acadian culture.
- 'Sportsman's Paradise' because of outdoor activities like camping, hunting, and fishing.
- Texas to the West, Arkansas to the North, and Mississippi to the East

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 5 of 14

What is North Louisiana referred to as and why?

- ○ It has many prairies and marshes.
- ○ Listening to zydeco music and eating spicy foods due to French and Acadian culture.
- ○ Farmers grow soybeans, corn, and cotton.
- ○ 'Sportsman's Paradise' because of outdoor activities like camping, hunting, and fishing.

Term 6 of 14

What region is our state capital, Baton Rouge, located in?

- ○ The Florida Parishes
- ○ Many houses are built on stilts high off the ground.
- ○ The Gulf of Mexico/America
- ○ Mardi Gras and music.

Term 7 of 14

What states border Louisiana?

- ○ Things that come from nature and can be used by humans, such as water, trees, oil, and seafood.
- ○ Listening to zydeco music and eating spicy foods due to French and Acadian culture.
- ○ Timber, or wood, is used to build things like furniture and homes.
- ○ Texas to the West, Arkansas to the North, and Mississippi to the East

7 Matching questions

8-14 of 14

What is the Greater New Orleans region famous for?	A. Gather supplies and evacuate.
What are some geographical features of Southwest Louisiana?	B. Bridges.
What body of water does Louisiana's coastline meet?	C. In the southeastern area
What do farmers grow in Central Louisiana?	D. It has many prairies and marshes.
What do Louisianans build to adapt to waterways?	E. Mardi Gras and music.
Where is Louisiana located in the United States?	F. Farmers grow soybeans, corn, and cotton.
What are two ways to prepare for hurricanes in Louisiana?	G. The Gulf of Mexico/America

LIVEWORKSHEETS