

IHCI BILINGUAL SCHOOL
Grammar Quiz 20% - 10th Grade

Score

III Quarter

Mr. Jossel Rodríguez

Name: _____ Date: _____

Disclaimer: Besides having to answer each item correctly to get a good grade, this exam will also consider the respect of the writing conventions (grammar, spelling, etc.) in the final evaluation. Consequently, you may lose some points from the final grade if you fail to respect them. Use a black or blue ink pen to write your answers to keep your rights for complaints.

Task 1. Select the right answer by drawing a square around the letter that has the best option. Only one possible answer (2,5% each, 5%).

1. Which statement worst describes a thesis statement?
 - a) A list of sources
 - b) A topic sentence for the conclusion
 - c) The controlling idea of the paper
 - d) A summary of the introduction
2. Why plagiarism should be avoided?
 - a) It avoids writing
 - b) It is a crime
 - c) It shortens the paper
 - d) It removes the need for citations

Task 2. Use the information below to complete the task (2,5% each, 5%).

- a. Write an APA in-text citation for a quotation by Clark published in 2014.
→

b. Write a correct APA reference entry for this source:

1. Book: Written by John Smith. Name: Learning English. Editorial: McGraw-Hill, 2018.

Task 3. Read each of the following statements carefully, then write “Takis” between the parenthesis if it is true, or “Lays” if it is false. If the statement is false, justify your answer. If the justification is wrong, the answer will be considered wrong as well (1% each, 5%).

1. A research paper is usually completed in several days ()

2. Secondary are interpretations of information by individuals ()

3. Internet sources should always be evaluated before using them ()

4. A research paper must not document its sources ()

5. A research paper is considered formal writing ()

Task4: Write an email for the next scenario, use the proper workplace structure/language (5%).

Scenario: You are a gym member of Shark Gym who wants to complain to John Wayne, the manager, because the equipment at the location you go (Atlanta, Georgia) is damaged.