

D) Listen to four people talking about smartphones and choose the correct answers:

1. What does Liz think about smartphones?

- a) They always make people tired and bored.
 - b) They help people create interesting things like short films.
 - c) They are only useful for making phone calls.
-

2. What does Liz usually record on her phone?

- a) Videos of her classmates at school.
 - b) News reports about daily events.
 - c) Short clips of her pet with added sounds and visual effects.
-

3. Where does Liz share her videos?

- a) On television channels.
 - b) On internet platforms where people communicate and share content.
 - c) In a school newspaper.
-

4. According to Tom, what problem do some teenagers have with smartphones?

- a) They spend too much time on them instead of learning.
 - b) They do not know how to turn them on.
 - c) They only use them for reading books.
-

5. What sometimes happens in class because of smartphones?

- a) Teachers ask students to buy new phones.
 - b) Students use them to answer every question.
 - c) Students forget to silence their devices and disturb the lesson.
-

6. What is Kate's general opinion about smartphones?

- a) They can be practical but sometimes harmful.
 - b) They are always dangerous.
 - c) They are only good for adults.
-

7. What does Kate say about her brother?

- a) He travels a lot with his friends.
 - b) He spends most of his time sitting and using his mobile device.
 - c) He studies very hard every evening.
-

8. How was Kate's brother different before?

- a) He was afraid of sports.
 - b) He never left the house.
 - c) He was energetic and took part in many physical activities.
-

9. What does Steve mainly use his smartphone for?

- a) Sending amusing images to his friends.
 - b) Writing long letters to teachers.
 - c) Watching documentaries about history.
-

10. How did Steve's smartphone help him last week?

- a) It repaired his bicycle.
- b) It guided him to the correct place using a navigation system.
- c) It called his friend automatically.

II) Listen to the text about The Royal Mail. Read the statements and decide whether they are True, False, or Not Mentioned(NM) according to the text.

1. The Royal Mail is the main company responsible for delivering letters in Britain.

True

False

NM

2. The British postal system was first organised in the sixteenth century.

True

False

NM

3. People in Britain could use the postal service immediately after it was created by Henry VIII

True

False

NM

4. Nowadays, the person who received the letter had to pay for its delivery.

True

False

NM

5. Before the nineteenth century, the problem of paying for letters had already been solved.

True

False

NM

6. The Penny Black was the first postage stamp used anywhere in the world.

True

False

NM

7. In the past, the cost of sending a letter depended on how heavy it was.

True

False

NM

8. The text explains how stamps are printed in the UK today.

True

False

NM

9. British stamps normally show the portrait of the monarch instead of the country's name.

True

False

NM

10. The text explains how the Royal Mail delivers letters to other countries.

True

False

NM