Translate each of the sentences below into Spanish. Then change each sentence to a question. First create a yes/no question and then an information question. (Note: each sentence uses a different verb tense.) For the information questions, use the interrogative in parentheses. There is one example.

Traduzca cada una de las siguientes oraciones al español. Luego, conviértalas en preguntas. Primero, formule una pregunta de sí o no y después una pregunta informativa. (Nota: cada oración utiliza un tiempo verbal diferente.) Para las preguntas informativas, utilice el interrogativo entre paréntesis. Hay un ejemplo.

---

1. Jennifer likes eating at the Italian restaurant.

   Translation: A Jennifer le gusta comer en el restaurante italiano.

   Y/N: Does Jennifer like eating at the Italian restaurant?

   Info (por qué): Why does Jennifer like eating at the Italian restaurant?

2. Tom needs new trainers.

   Translation:

   Yes/No:

   Info (por qué):

3. Paul wanted to go to the cinema.

   Translation:

   Yes/No:

   Info (cuando):

4. Susan will watch a movie tonight.

   Translation:

   Yes/No:

   Info (dónde):

5. Abigail is studying.

   Translation:

   Yes/No:

   Info (qué):

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Julia was visiting yesterday.

Translation:

Yes/No:

Info (quién):

7. Carl will be wearing an orange sweater tomorrow.

Translation:

Yes/No:

Info (por qué):

8. Steven has been a mechanic for many years.

Translation:

Yes/No:

Info (dónde):

9. They had finished their homework before 8pm.

Translation:

Yes/No:

Info (cómo):

10. He will have arrived by then.

Translation:

Yes/No:

Info (dónde):

LIVEWORKSHEETS