

Student's name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

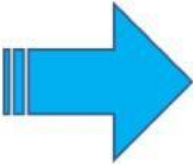

I. Let's review how to use INFINITIVE OF PURPOSE.

To Infinitive

Examples:

We eat fruit and vegetables to be healthy.
He's studying to get good marks in the test.
We use a computer to write emails.

 We use TO INFINITIVE to say WHY we do things.

Complete the sentences using TO INFINITIVE. The first one is an example.

0. I study very hard to pass the English test. (pass)
1. Alice went to the supermarket _____ some fruits. (buy)
2. My friend goes to the library _____ her favourite book. (read)
3. After school, we go to the park _____ football. (play)
4. Yesterday, Amy woke up early _____ the bus. (catch)
5. This morning, Benny went to the dental clinic _____ his tooth cleaned. (have)
6. Uncle Peter goes to the gym every day _____ fit and healthy. (be)
7. They have to turn on the lights _____ at night. (see)
8. My grandma opens the door _____ the cat in. (let)
9. We should eat a balanced diet _____ fit and healthy. (stay)

II. Match the questions to the correct answers.

Anna meets Ben at the playground and they talk about their weekend. Anna asks Ben some questions. Match her questions to the correct spaces.

A	Did you have to see the doctor?
B	Are you feeling better today?
C	How was your weekend, Ben?
D	What should you do to be healthy?
E	How did you feel last weekend?

1. _____

It was boring because I was sick.

2. _____

I felt dizzy and I had got a serious headache.

3. _____

Yes, my mum took me to Dr. Smith. He took care of me and gave me some advice.

4. _____

Yes, I'm feeling better than yesterday.

5. _____

Dr. Smith said that I should take some medicine and get some rest.