Listening

1. What are your favorite colors?

2. Listen to the video again and complete the gaps with colors.

I bet many people agree that a white T-shirt is one of the basic yet classic clothing pieces. So here are some of the ways to wear a T-shirt and look chic. First, a pair of suit pants. The T-shirt here is taking the role to make the suit pants still look casual yet chic. Add a color to the all and white outfit by wearing a bag.

Listening

A classic skirt, a pleated skirt. For a black and white outfit, use a pop of red on the lips. And some from the back chains and necklaces for some extra elegance. Sixth, a dress. Here, I make the sleeveless dress look modest with a T-shirt. I'm doing pastel and pastel game here. Last look, all white. Here, I try to pull up a more formal look. A monochrome outfit is a way to get an instant chicness. And then, I tone it up with some shades of gold and . Stacks of pearls are not so extra when they're white on white. And there we have it. Several ways to wear a white T-shirt and look chic.

3. What colors do you like to match?

4. What colors make you look good?

Grammar Point

1. Read the sentence:

"A classic skirt, a black leather skirt."

The underlined words are:

- verbs
- adjectives
- colors
- nouns

2. We use adjectives before nouns in English.

They follow an order, and we can use the acronym to help us: DOSA-SCOMP:

Determiner, Opinion, Size, Age, Shape, Color, Origin, Material, and Purpose.

Grammar Point

Organize these three sentences using the DOSA-SCOMP order.

★ A beautiful red long dress

★ My brown big hat

★ Her green silk old blouse

Grammar Point

3. Choose the correct order for each sentence:

a) He found a dirty old / an old dirty jumper.

b) She wore a red long / a long red skirt.

c) They have a small blue / a blue small backpack.

d) She bought a silk beautiful / a beautiful silk dress.

e) I need a winter warm / a warm winter coat.
